

- Contract with US Air Force to conduct critical performance modeling and siting for Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland
- System siting issues due to construction along the runway
- Special siting requirements to accommodate Air Force One Aircraft operations
- Contract complete and ACS recommendations adopted by the Customer